

IMLA—A valuable Resource for City, County & Town Attorneys,

IMLA was formed in 1983

- ◆ to collect and disseminate information on matters of concern to attorneys practicing in the field of municipal law,
- ◆ to promote the continuing education of attorneys on issues affecting municipal law, and
- ◆ to provide forums for attorneys practicing municipal law to meet and exchange ideas and professional experience.

IMLA is a not for profit corporation that is also an affiliate of the Aim – Accelerate Indiana Municipalities which provides contracted services to IMLA.

IMLA publishes newsletters and electronic notices during the year that highlights recent changes in the law, both legislatively and case law.

IMLA can create a listing of its members so that member attorneys may receive information about others they may call upon as a resource.

IMLA prepares an index of past municipal law seminar topics with presentation papers. These papers may be obtained as a jumpstart to any research project by calling the Aim/IMLA offices at 317-237-6200, by fax at 317-237-6206 or by e-mail jwoods@citiesandtowns.org.

IMLA holds the Municipal Law Seminar each year in mid to late June (date, time and location TBA) in Indianapolis for at least 9 CLE credits and participates each fall at the Annual Conference in Evansville, Indiana (October 10-12, 2017) with additional CLE credits. IMLA contracts with Aim to bring its members continuing legal educational opportunities through qualifying workshops as part of the Aim local officials' education programs. IMLA membership provides you advance notice, reduced attendance rates and handles all of the CLE attendance reporting requirements for qualifying sessions. Some Aim Webinars qualify for CLE Distant Learning credits. Contact Jodie Woods for CLE eligibility information.

IMLA is open to county attorney membership. The County Attorneys also have representation on the IMLA Board of Directors. Ronald Cross represents county interests on the Board. Robert Clutter, Boone County, is the President until June 2017.

IMLA members may participate in the IACT discussion list serve. To activate the list serve, IMLA members should contact Aim at (317) 237-6200 or email jwoods@aimindiana.org. IMLA members who have provided their email address may also receive the Aim Statehouse Report (which summarizes legislative action), the bi-weekly Municipal Dispatch E-newsletter and the weekly Legislative Summary E-newsletter during the legislative session.

IMLA has web pages on the Aim website under Membership and Affiliate Groups at www.aimindiana.org.
