AGENDA
9:30 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.	Registration
10:00 a.m. - 10:05 a.m.	Welcome
10:05 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	Preparing Yourself and Your Employees: The Unarmed Response to an Active Shooter It's impossible to prepare for every scenario that could come your way as a local leader. There are issues, however, where every attempt to prepare must be made. How to prevent and address an active shooter scenario is one of those issues and you need additional tools at your disposal. Workshop attendees will gain a better understanding of active shooter situations, educating your employees, response options, and plenty of time for Q&A with nationally recognized experts from the Indiana State Police. Speakers: Doug Carter, Superintendent, Indiana State Police; Richard Hogue, Ed.D, Indiana Corporate and School Safety Liaison, Indiana State Police
12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.	Luncheon Spend your lunchtime hearing from Indiana State Police Superintendent Doug Carter and others. Topics may include more tips for addressing active shooter situations, how ISP regional partnerships can benefit your city or town, and the latest on Indiana's heroin crisis. Of course, this group will be happy to entertain your questions and concerns on any public safety topic on your mind. Come ready to learn and share with your colleagues from around the state on important matters of safety and security!
