The 2017 Aim Legislative dinner was a great success and the bar is high for 2018! We'll gather once again at The Crane Bay in Indianapolis for an outstanding evening of celebrating everything our partnership with lawmakers has given the State of Indiana: quality places that attract top talent, vibrant arts and culture hubs, unique towns that epitomize what it means to be a Hoosier, and so much more.

Sponsored by Vectren, the Aim Legislative Dinner will include featured remarks from Jason Roberts. Jason is the inspired citizen everyone hopes for in their community. He has led many seemingly impossible efforts to turn hometown dreams into reality and his efforts are being replicated across the globe. No one will leave the dinner lacking enthusiasm and amazing ideas!
