

CITY ENGINEER – CITY OF ANDERSON

SALARY: $64,201 - $103,037/yr. (Pay and benefit package is negotiable)

Incumbent serves as City Engineer with responsibility to direct the operation, construction and maintenance of Street Sewers, Traffic and Storm Water Control activities including supervision of department personnel.

DUTIES:

Develops long-range plans for street, sewer, and traffic projects, including a plan for use of federal funding.

Directs and supervises the design, right-of-way acquisition and construction for the implementation of the long-range plan and for maintenance and repair projects for streets, sanitary sewers, storm water control and traffic control.

Serves as City Traffic Engineer performing traffic studies and oversees the operation of the Traffic Department.

Serves as member of Board of Sanitary Commissioners and oversees the maintenance and operation of the Sanitary District Storm Water Control System.

Serves as member of the City Planning Commission.

Shares supervisory responsibility of Parking Authority with City Controller.

REQUIREMENTS:

A degree in Engineering and/or equivalent training and experience and possession of Professional Engineering License.

Thorough knowledge of civil engineering, highway design and construction, sanitary and storm sewer design and construction and traffic transportation.