

2021-2022 Membership Form

Membership shall be open to any person professionally or voluntarily engaged and involved in the economic development or redevelopment of or on behalf of a city, town, or county of the State of Indiana. This includes members of a redevelopment commission, elected officials, local government staff, redevelopment professionals, the executive director of a redevelopment department or organization, and employees of a redevelopment department or organization. Company representatives may also join as approved by the RAI membership.

Dues are assessed per municipality/organization instead of by individual. Therefore, multiple redevelopment individuals from the same municipality/organization can sign-up under one membership.
