Participating in a Trust Local event is always a fun, low-key way of spending time with local officials and learning more about how the decisions they make impact Hoosiers. If you've never attended a Trust Local event I believe you will leave feeling inspired and proud of your municipal leaders. During the event there is time to catch up with old friends, create new connections, learn about the projects happening across our state, and have some fun in the process. This time we'll be fowling. It sounds weird, but it's as fun and easy as throwing a football at a bunch of bowling pins! Professional (or any) skills are not required. Please make plans to attend and sponsor this year's outing!
