

The following schedules are timelines proposed by House and Senate leaders for the operation of the 2022 Special Session.

ANTICIPATED HOUSE SCHEDULE:

Monday, July 25

10 a.m. House Session

Tuesday, July 26

10 a.m. House Session

11 a.m. Ways & Means – House Bill 1001(ss) – (Testimony, Amend and Vote). Committee will be held in the House Chamber.

Session will reconvene upon adjournment of Ways & Means (Committee Report Adoption)

Thursday, July 28

Time TBD - House Session – House Bill 1001(ss) – (2nd Reading)

Friday, July 29

Time TBD - House Session – House Bill 1001(ss) – (3rd Reading)

Week of Aug. 1

House to consider Senate passed legislation

Under Indiana code, the special session must end no later than Aug. 14, 2022, but legislative leaders anticipate concluding their business within two weeks after convening.

-30-

ANTICIPATED SENATE SCHEDULE

Monday, July 25

11 a.m.: The Senate will convene session at 11 a.m. to introduce Senate bills for their first reading. This is procedural - debate on bills does not typically occur at this stage.

A limited number of seats are reserved for the press. Outlets needing sound may plug into the mult box in the elevated section of the media area.

1 – 5 p.m.: The Senate Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure will meet in the Senate Chamber to hear Senate Bill 1. If all those present who signed up have testified before 5 p.m., the committee will adjourn at that time.

Members of the public who wish to testify should sign up prior to the start of the committee, which can be done online or in person, and must check in outside the Senate Chamber. A limited number of seats are reserved for the press. Outlets needing sound may plug into the mult box in the elevated section of the media area to record sound from the witness podium and committee members.

The committee is expected to end by 5 p.m. A vote will not be taken Monday.

Tuesday, July 26

9 a.m. – noon: The Senate Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure will meet in the Senate Chamber to continue hearing testimony on SB 1. The committee is expected to vote on SB 1 at the end of the meeting. If all those present who signed up have testified before noon, the committee will move to discussion and consideration of the bill at that time.

Members of the public who wish to testify should sign up prior to the start of the committee, which can be done online or in person, and must check in outside the Senate Chamber. A limited number of seats are reserved for the press. Outlets needing sound may plug into the mult box in the elevated section of the media area to record sound from the witness podium and committee members.

2 – 5 p.m.: The Senate Committee on Appropriations will convene in the Senate Chamber of the Statehouse to hear Senate Bill 2 and Senate Bill 3.

Members of the public who wish to testify should sign up prior to the start of the committee, which can be done online or in person, and must check in outside the Senate Chamber. A limited number of seats are reserved for the press. Outlets needing sound may plug into the mult box in the elevated section of the media area to record sound from the witness podium and committee members.

Wednesday, July 27

1:30 p.m.: The Senate will convene for session to adopt committee reports. This is procedural - debate on bills does not typically occur at this stage.

A limited number of seats are reserved for the press. Outlets needing sound may plug into the mult box in the elevated section of the media area.

Thursday, July 28

1:30 p.m.: The Senate will convene for session for Senate bill(s) on second reading. At this stage, senators may offer, debate and vote on amendments to bills. Filed amendments will be available for review at iga.in.gov.

A limited number of seats are reserved for the press. Outlets needing sound may plug into the mult box in the elevated section of the media area.

Friday, July 29

10:30 a.m.: The Senate will convene for Senate bill(s) on third reading. Debate on those bills will occur at this stage, and a final vote is expected to be taken on them.