

INDIANA BLACK MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS' PUBLIC FINANCE WORKSHOP

Tuesday, February 4 | 12:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. Eastern | Indianapolis

In advance of this year's Aim Legislative Dinner, Indiana's Black Municipal Officials are encouraged to attend a ½ day workshop exploring various finance options for strategic projects. Our experts from Baker Tilly Municipal Advisors and Ice Miller will discuss financing concepts that typically work for projects ranging from parking structures to amphitheaters and sewers to stadiums. Come ready to learn, discuss your own visionary projects, and connect with fellow black leaders on common areas of concern.

Be sure to make plans to attend the Aim Legislative Dinner on February 5! Learn more at aimindiana.org/legislative-dinner.

AGENDA

All times noted are Eastern.

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.	Registration and Lunch Lunch will be available for attendees to enjoy as they arrive. Join us to grab a bite to eat and build your network before the workshop convenes.
1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.	Public Financing Options Our experts will walk through the wide range of project financing options municipalities can use to achieve their goals.
2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.	Connecting Project Types to Potential Funding In this interactive discussion, speakers and participants will begin drawing parallels between the funding concepts and project types.
9:00 p.m. – 11:00 p.m.	Evening Networking Following the workshop attendees are free to relax, return emails, or join friends and colleagues for dinner. Plan on meeting back up for beverages and light snacks courtesy of Aim and 1972 Group before calling it a night!
